BELGIUMDeclaration of Endorsement of the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

The Herder Institute of historical Research on East Central Europa, represented by Prof. Dr. Peter Haslinger, welcomes and fully supports the Recommendation of the European Commission on the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers.

By endorsing the Charter and the Code, the Herder Institute of historical Research on East Central Europa recognises the value of its principles and voluntarily commits itself to applying them.

This endorsement by the Herder Institute of historical Research on East Central Europa is fully in line with its policy aiming at making a researcher's career more attractive and at enhancing the quality of research and innovation. The signature of the Charter and the Code is also a further commitment to foster international collaboration and the various forms of mobility by researchers.

By implementing the principles of the Charter and the Code, the Herder Institute of historical Research on East Central Europa intends to contribute to the realisation of an open and attractive European labour market for researchers.
