

VIRTUAL FUNDING SEMINAR

National Geographic Society invests in bold people and transformative ideas in the fields of conservation, education, research, storytelling, and technology. We encourage grant applications from around the world, especially from people at the beginning of their careers.

Join this virtual event to hear Claire McNulty and Arslan Ahmad, from the National Geographic Society, tell you more about our grants and hear from local National Geographic Explorers about their experience with National Geographic.

Date: September 22nd 2020, 4pm CEST

To register for the event please fill out the form here.
